

Some technology leaders recently signed a statement about possible risks from AI. Mitigating the risk of extinction from AI should be a global priority alongside other societal-scale risks such as pandemics and nuclear war.

Do you support/oppose this statement?

